Agreement Paves Way for DraftKings to Enter State of Kansas

BOSTON, Nov. 16, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Today DraftKings Inc. (Nasdaq: DKNG) announced a collaboration with BHCMC, LLC, a subsidiary of Butler National Corporation (OTCQB: BUKS), manager of Boot Hill Casino & Resort, to enter into a new market access deal, subject to sports betting legislation and regulations being adopted, and the receipt of all applicable licenses and approvals, that could bring the top-rated mobile Sportsbook to sports fans in the state of Kansas.

"As we continue our quest to expand our mobile sportsbook footprint to every state in the U.S., we are eager to begin working with Boot Hill Casino & Resort," said Jeremy Elbaum, Senior Vice President Business Development, DraftKings. "We look forward to the opportunities that lay ahead and remain optimistic that Kansas lawmakers will enact common sense legislation that will benefit the state and its constituents."

Currently, DraftKings has a plethora of both sports wagering options and online casino games that spans 18 states and offers customers with the chance to participate in its newest loyalty rewards program. In addition to its millions of daily fantasy sports contests offered every year, DraftKings Marketplace launched in August and offers sports and entertainment fans mainstream accessibility to collect NFTs from some of the world's greatest athletes and Hollywood's biggest blockbusters.

"As manager for Boot Hill Casino & Resort for the Kansas Lottery, we are pleased to work with DraftKings to bring first in class mobile sportsbook to Kansas," said Clark Stewart, Chief Executive Officer of Boot Hill Casino & Resort. "DraftKings is a leader in this fast growing industry and will bring a trusted, experienced mobile sports betting application to sports fans in Kansas, when the law allows."
